Dear Max,

Did you know that the first chocolate factory in the USA was in Boston or that the Ted Williams Tunnel is the deepest in America (90 feet under the earth)?

Have you heard that the name Boston is from a town in Lincolnshire, on the East coast of England?

Or did you know that first college in North America, Harvard, was founded in 1663 and that the Boston Common is the oldest public park in the USA?

And did you know that our next PLA 3.0 Open Training will be held in Boston, MA, USA?
